MEREDITH DAIRY Marinated Cheese

Meredith Dairy Marinated Cheese is always a favorite in our set. The creator of this gem, Julie Cameron, together with her husband Sandy believe in sustainability and responsibility when it comes to our planet and their farming practices. Keeping all of that in mind they have created this amazing product. Goat and sheep's milk blended together in natural oils, pepper, garlic and thyme. Great on fresh bread with tomatoes and basil...great on just about anything. 11.3 oz.

MARIEKE 1000 Day Reserve

Save $4.00 lb.

For the month of March, we are spotlighting women owned and operated companies. Marieke Gouda Co. is just such a place. Their 1000 Day Reserve Raw Milk Gouda was the first cheese that introduced us to this great cheese making organization. It is sweet and savory, and everything else in between. This cheese was an instant hit with our staff and our customers.

PERFECT PAIRINGS

* ONE STONE CELLARS *

In celebration of March being Women's History Month, we are featuring wineries with Women at the forefront all month long. One Stone is a part of the Ancient Peaks label out of Paso Robles, producing high quality wines of great value. They have a female winemaker, a female artist who does all of their labels, and donate a portion of their proceeds to provide education and opportunities to the next generation of female leaders in the wine and spirits industry.

ONE STONE CELLARS

Cabernet Sauvignon

FREIRE LOBO DAO

White Blend

Save $1.00

Elisa Freire Lobo was the first woman winemaker in the Dao region, and went on to take over her family's vineyards and convert them to organic farming. High elevation vines bring out crisp, bright fruit character that is tempered by the textured richness of the native varietal Encruzado. Floral, fruity, and perfectly balanced.

MONASTERO SUORE CISTERNNCENSI LAZIO

Bianco

Save $2.00

Farmed organically by a convent of Nuns and vinified with almost no technology, this is an unmistakably special wine. This aromatic field blend is grown in volcanic soils that impart distinct earthy and mineral tones, while delightful texture leads into notes of orange blossom, cherry limeade, and subtle herbaceousness. Brilliant acidity rounds out perfectly dry finish.
